Club News

Congratulations to our Minor Camogs who have finished their season on a high by lifting the Division 3 championship. This is their first year back at this level which makes their achievement even more remarkable. Well done girls.

Join us in the club next Saturday night for a celebration of 25 years of Ladies Football in Killeavy. We are still inviting anyone with old photos, programmes, videos or any other memorabilia to contact Sinead Reel on 079 0049 4616.

Killeavy GAC is delighted that two of our young members, Grainne O'Neill and Aine McParland have been selected to attend the GAA Youth Conference in Croke Park next Saturday.

Good luck to St. Michael's Drama Group who will be presenting A Widow's Paradise in the Youth Club tonight and tomorrow. Break a leg and all that.

The launch of Oliver McDonald's wonderfully researched and illustrated "History of the GAA in Killeavy" is set for 7th November. Special guests to be confirmed. All welcome on the evening.

There will be two underage presentation nights in the coming weeks. All u6, u8 and u10 will be presented with their medals on Sunday 25th October at 6.00pm while the u12, u14 and u16 players will have their presentation on Friday 6th November at 7.30pm.

A missed free with the last kick of the game meant that Killeavy II went down to defeat in their final league game against St. Patrick's and so just missed out on promotion to Division 3A. The result, while disappointing may end up having no effect as there are proposals in the offing to restructure the leagues and possibly championships in Armagh. Killeavy will host a meeting of South Armagh clubs on 28th October at which the proposals will be made public. Watch this space.

Following the withdrawal of Grange, Killeavy's group in the u21 championship has been redrawn. We will now play just two matches in the group stages: away to Armagh Harps this Sunday at 2.00pm and at home to Crossmaglen next week. The team had two challenge matches in preparation last weekend, recording good wins over Mayobridge and Pearse Og.

Our thanks to all our hosts and guests who took part in Come Dine with Killeavy. This was a very welcome fundraiser and turned out to be a most entertaining and enjoyable evening (and early morning) for all. Particular thanks to Collette Quinn and Pat Quinn for the event.

The annual community firework display and fancy dress disco will go ahead as usual on Halloween night – Sat. 31st October.
