Scór na nÓg 2015

As the sporting season comes to an end, our attention turns to the cultural side of the club. Tonight in Madden, sees the start of Scór na nÓg for 2015 and Killeavy is sending its strongest ever team. Truth be said, participation in Scór had started to slip over the past few years but thanks to the excellent work being done to select and prepare our young members, Killeavy are now in the happy position of being able to enter the Instrumental, Ballad Group, Solo Singing and Quiz competitions. Indeed, we have so many instrumentalists that we were able to enter three teams under the names Killeavy Football, Killeavy Hurling and Killeavy Camogie. The photograph shows the entire Scór na nÓg team looking splendid in their club colours. Overall we will be represented by seven individuals and teams and without putting extra pressure on them, it would be great to see a home talent on stage whenever Killeavy Youth Club hosts the Ulster semi-final in late November. The Scór itself is always a great night's entertainment and we would ask you to come out and support all our young performers as they have worked very hard from August getting ready for the battles ahead. Obviously, we are very proud of them and their commitment to Scór, we particularly thank their mentors, Anne Murphy and Elaine Dowdall, and we wish everyone every success tonight. Back row (L-R): Gary Dowdall (Instrumental); Fergal Murphy (Instrumental); Hannah-Kate Murphy (Instrumental); Katie King (Instrumental); Sean King (Quiz); Claire McMahon (Quiz); Matthew Keenan (Instrumental); Laura McGuinness (Instrumental). Middle row (L-R): Sean Boylan (Quiz & Instrumental); Katie McCann (Instrumental); Moira Murphy (Instrumental); Sarah Lynch (Ballad Group); Grainne Boylan (Instrumental); Riona Stuart (Solo singing); Grainne Cromie (Solo singing & Ballad Group). Front row (L-R): Conor King (Instrumental); Bridgeen Murphy (Instrumental); Eadaoin Trainor (Ballad Group); Niamh Murphy (Ballad Group); Shane Keenan (Instrumental); Roisin Dowdall (Instrumental & Ballad Group).

Other News

Goals from Ciaran O'Hanlon and Thomas Hannaway were the high points in a 2.12 – 2.07 away win over Armagh Harps in the u21 championship last Sunday afternoon. Killeavy now play Crossmaglen in the Memorial Park this Sunday at 2.00pm where a victory will give us a place in the u21 county final.

This Saturday night in the club should witness a lively celebration of 25 years of Ladies Football in Killeavy. Anybody with any involvement in ladies football over the years is most welcome to come along and relive old times.

The launch of Oliver McDonald's "History of the GAA in Killeavy" is set for 7th November. Special guest on the evening will be renowned Armagh journalist, poet, historian and former Armagh manager Peter Makem. Everyone is welcome to attend this unique event. Pre-orders can be collected and the books will also be on sale on the night (£30).

Next Wednesday, Killeavy will host a meeting of South Armagh clubs which will discuss new proposals to restructure the leagues and possibly championships in Armagh. A report will be in next week's bulletin.

The annual community firework display and fancy dress disco will go ahead as usual on Halloween night – Sat. 31st October.

Remember Strictly Come Killeavy takes to the stage again on 5th December. Book your tickets early to avoid disappointment.

There will be two underage presentation nights in the coming weeks. All u6, u8 and u10 will be presented with their medals on Sunday 25th October at 6.00pm while the u12, u14 and u16 players will have their presentation on Friday 6th November at 7.30pm.
