Review of the Week

It was ladies to the fore this week with an historic first ever win for our senior camogs over our nearest and dearest rivals from Maebh O'Neill's, Camough and a very impressive win for our senior footballers over St. Peter's, Lurgan. The men didn't fare quite so well with our Junior footballers losing out twice and our hurlers going down to a heavy defeat in Middletown.

A shout out to our u14 footballers who are in London next weekend to take part in an invitational tournament organised by St. Paul's Academy. Hope all goes well with the trip – we are sure that they will be a credit to their families and the club.

The big match this weekend sees the top of the table clash between Silverbridge and Killeavy take place in the 'Bridge at 7.30pm. Both teams are unbeaten and even at this early stage of the season, this is seen as a potential promotion decider.

Club Maith Assessment

A very important meeting will be held on Thursday night this week when officials from the Ulster Council will visit our club to carry out an assessment of all aspects of the club's activities including coaching, child protection, public relations, financial and administrative stability, participation in cultural events, community focus and much more. The visit from the Ulster Council is part of the Club Maith (Good Club) accreditation scheme that seeks to ensure that GAA clubs are fit for purpose in addressing the needs of their members and the wider community. The club has already submitted a portfolio of evidence and this visit will be the final decider as to the level of award (Bronze, Silver, Gold or Platinum) that we will eventually achieve. If you are about the club this week you can help by making sure everything is tidy and in place so as to show ourselves off in the best possible light.

Charity 80's Party

The club is offering you the opportunity to relive the old Youth Club Discos with a 80's Party Night next Saturday 14th May. Tickets are £10 each and proceeds will go towards Action Cancer, Sabrina Ryan Foundation and a new club defibrillator. 80s dress is optional but there will be prizes on the night for 'best dressed'.

Ladies' Night Out

Stephen Cunningham won the tickets to the Armagh Raceday at Down Royal last Monday. Sorry we have no tickets to give away for Armagh Ladies' Night at the Dogs on 21st May but Sinead Reel will be happy to sell you one for just £10.

Hurling Fundraiser

You may be aware of the internet sensation that is Rory's Stories – a collection of GAA themed comedy videos based on the life and times of an ordinary club member. Killeavy's Hurlers are now offering you the opportunity to join in the fun when Rory appears in person in the Social Club on Saturday 4th June. Tickets are £10 and will be like the proverbial 'hot cakes' for what is sure to be a hilarious evening's entertainment. Tickets available from all senior hurlers and in the Social Club.
