Apologies

Apologies for the lack of a club bulletin for the past five weeks but unfortunately there was too much pressure on from the day job and I just could not find the time to get round to it each Friday. It's a quiet time of year which also makes it harder to fill a column or two but I certainly have been reminded over the past few weeks of how many people look forward to picking up the bulletin and catching up on all the news about the club so I will try to get something out most weeks before the start of the new season.

So what's been happening?

Well, our Club President Larry King turned 90 and celebrated in great style with his family and friends at a special function in the Social Club last Sunday evening. Larry was in great form and was belting out songs in his own inimitable way. Happy birthday Larry and many more of them.

Our senior football manager, Steven McDonnell has left to take up a new post. The club would like to sincerely thank Steven for his two years in charge, he was never less than 100% committed to his role and was unlucky in that injuries and emigration were big factors in denying him and his team the rewards that their efforts deserved. The entire club would like to wish him every success with his new adventure in Burren. The search has started for Steven's replacement and hopefully we will be able to bring news on this front in the next edition of the bulletin.

At last week's county final of Scór na nÓg, Killeavy won the trophy for the Most Improved Club of the Year. Unfortunately individual honours didn't follow with the team prize but we should all be very proud of the efforts of our young members. Well done to all concerned.

Our Lotto jackpot was scooped last week. The photograph below shows Brian McKeivitt who had the happy task of presenting the winning cheque for £4,400 to his sister-in-law Eileen Doran.

The winning numbers were 9: 10: 16 and 22 and we had six Match 3 winners who receive £25 each.

So what's coming up?

Part of the reason for the bulletin this week is to raise awareness of some events coming up in the very near future. In chronological order, our Annual Reunion will be held next Saturday night in the Social Club. This is always a good night's craic with the highlight being the presentation of awards to our senior players. Tickets are just £5 or you can pay at the door.

The club calendar is gearing up for production again this year. Anybody who might want their birthdays, anniversaries or any special occasions posted in the calendar should contact Larry a.s.a.p. on 07748 960314.

On Saturday 3rd December, Killeavy will play host to the Ulster Scór na nÓg semi-final for the second time in three years – a clear sign that the Ulster council are happy with both the welcome and the facilities.

Next up is the club's Annual General Meeting on Tuesday 6th December. You are all most welcome to come along to hear reports covering the club's activities in 2016 including finding out where all the money has come from and gone to. You can also have your say in the election of the club's officers for 2017. Please see reverse for the official notice.

Note that the club shop is open for business every Monday night at 7pm. The shop has added new product lines and will be trying to have extra opening hours in the run up to Christmas. Details on our Facebook page.

Finally, there will be yet another red letter day for Killeavy on Sunday

11th December when we have the honour of hosting the Armagh GAA Annual Convention for the first time in our history. This is the main meeting of the GAA in Armagh and over 50 football and hurling clubs will send almost 200 delegates to this year's convention.
