The bulletin returns...

This week marks the official return of Killeavy GAC's weekly bulletin. On the back of our three part "What you may have missed" series, the bulletin returns to a more recognisable format as a weekly update on the happenings of our club. The reintroduction of the bulletin is the first of many Executive decisions for 2018 that aim to improve the running of Killeavy club. A new Public Relations Committee has also been established, responsible for the production and distribution not only of the weekly bulletin but also the writing of press releases and management of our social media platforms. Any member who has content they wish to be considered for inclusion in the weekly bulletin or social media channels can email the new committee on PRO.killeavystmoninna.armagh@gaa.ie. To that end we encourage all of our managers, parents, players and non-playing members to regularly send news, match reports, pictures and updates to this address in order to facilitate the dissemination of club news across all of our platforms.

2018 Killeavy GAC Calendar

By now, thanks to our team of young volunteers, our 5th annual Killeavy GAC calendar has been delivered to over 2000 homes in the parish. We know a lot of our members and friends look forward to receiving the calendar and display it prominently throughout the year. Primarily, of course it is a fundraiser for the club and this year, 53 of our local companies have paid good money to support the club through their adverts. In return, we would ask our members and friends to give their support to our sponsors and adhere to the calendar tagline – "Keep your parish in business by keeping your business in the parish."

Our 2018 calendar sponsors are listed on the right – you can find their contact details in their calendar adverts.

Killeavy's Dancers vie for Ulster glory

Killeavy's Scór na nÓg Ceili Dance team, fresh from success in the Armagh final and the Ulster semi-final, will be competing tomorrow, Saturday 13th, in the Ulster Scór na nÓg final. They will not be short of supporters as they take to the stage in St. Patrick's Grammar School, Downpatrick at 5pm.

Our Scór na nÓg Quiz team has already won its way through to the All-Ireland Scór finals in Sligo next month and the club sends our best wishes to our dancers as they seek to make it an amazing double for the club.

Membership 2018

Membership is now due for 2018. New rates were agreed at our annual general meeting as follows:

Juvenile ( up to the age of 18 ) .....	£30
Adult ( non-playing ) .....	£40
Family Membership ( 2 adults and all children u18 ) .....	£100
U21 Playing Member ( inc. Club Killeavy ) .....	£120
Adult Playing Member ( inc. Club Killeavy ) .....	£240
Club Killeavy Membership .....	£240

The club has undergone a dramatic transformation in the last decade with a new field, weights room, renovated youth and social clubs, 3G facilities, carpark, outdoor gym and running track and these new rates recognise the financial commitment needed in order to sustain an organisation still in pursuit of its apogee in Armagh GAA. Every one of us benefit from the club and your financial commitment through annual membership helps to ensure that the club will remain at the heart of our community in the decades ahead.

2018 Registration Nights

Members from u12 through to senior are encouraged to attend registration in the social club on the following nights;

Ladies Football .....	Tuesday 16th January (7pm - 9pm)
Hurling .....	Thursday 18th January (7pm - 9pm)
Camogie .....	Tuesday 23rd January (7pm - 9pm)
Mens/Boys Football .....	Thursday 25th January (7pm - 9pm)

Separate evenings will be held for u6, u8 and u10 members at a later stage. Registration will be led over the coming weeks by our registrar Laura Morgan who can be contacted for any membership related queries on 077 4814 6011.

Health & Well-being

As many of us start into another new year with a sense of enthusiasm and positivity for what it may bring, we consider those for whom this may not be the case. Financial worry, existential dread, anxiety and depression are common to the human condition and most people experience them at some time throughout their life.

It is very important to us in Killeavy GAC that we look after all those in the wider community who feel isolated in dark thoughts. We have a trained Health & Wellbeing team led by Fionnuala O'Neill (077 8968 0670) who are always willing to provide a listening ear or to direct people towards more specialist support services.

These organisations offer 24 hour support for those in distress:

• Lifeline	0808 808 8000
• Samaritans	0845 790 9090
• Age NI	0808 808 7575
• PIPS	028 3026 6195
• Promoting Wellbeing Newry	028 3083 4325
• Just Ask Adolescent Services	028 3083 5400
• National Debt Advice	0808 223 4188

Please don't be silent. Talk to someone.

Change of date for Annual Reunion Dinner

Please note that the success of our Scór Quiz team on reaching the All-Ireland final and the possibility that they might be joined by our Ceili team has thrown a little spanner in the works of the planning for our Annual Reunion Dinner. Originally scheduled for 17th February, the clash with the All-Ireland Scór means that we will now hold our celebration evening in the Flagstaff Lodge on Saturday 3rd March. We hope that this change will not cause any inconvenience. Tickets, costing £30, are now available from committee members.
